

Privacy and cookie statement

Through SPITZ congres & event websites, privacy-sensitive data in other words personal data is processed. SPITZ congres & event respects your privacy and treats your personal data carefully and confidentially. The processing of your personal data is done in accordance with the AVG (General Data Protection Regulation)

In this privacy statement, we will explain which personal data is collected and used, and with what purpose. We recommend that you read this statement carefully.

Use of your data

When registering for a digital meeting, you leave certain information with us. This can be personal data. You register via a website or online registration form. We only ask for data that is necessary and relevant for the conference. In any case: first name, prefix, last name, organization, and e-mail address. In some cases also job title, billing address, and expertise or areas of interest.

We always ask (if the client wishes) permission to use your first name, prefix, last name, and organization before publishing it on the online platform.

Personal data at online webinars or live stream with organizational partners

By registering and participating in an online session you consent to share your name and e-mail address with the speaker who provides said session during the event.

When do we use your data?

SPITZ uses personal data to communicate information about the event. Think of confirmations emails, billing, assignments, evaluation, etc.

Retention periods

The data mentioned above will be processed no later than one month (for unpaid conferences) and no later than 3 months (for paid conferences because of billing) after the end of the event. After this period the data will be transferred to our client. After the transfer has taken place, we will delete the data.

Security

To prevent misuse and unauthorized access to your personal data, we take appropriate security measures such as purchasing an SSL certificate.

The websites are managed by De Webmakers and the e-mail of SPITZ congress & event is managed by Veneco in Maasdijk. With both partners, processor agreements have been concluded. Both parties will take appropriate technical and organizational measures concerning the privacy law.

Provision to third parties

SPITZ congress & event does not provide your data to third parties, except in the case of a legal claim or when this is necessary to the delivery of a product or service.

Right to access and correct or delete your data

If you have provided us with personal data, you can send us a request to view, change or delete data. Please contact us via registration@spitz.nu.

Cookies

SPITZ congres & event does not use anonymized tracking cookies. A cookie is a simple, small file that is sent along with pages from a website and is saved by your browser on your computer's hard drive.

About this statement

Adjust privacy and cookie statement

SPITZ congres & event reserves the right to make changes to this statement. When there are changes, we will publish them on our website. It is recommended to consult this statement regularly so that you are aware of these changes.

Personal Data Authority

Of course, we are happy to help you if you have complaints about the processing of your personal data. Under the privacy law, you also have the right to submit a complaint to the Dutch Data Protection Authority against the processing of personal data. You can contact the Dutch Data Protection Authority.

Contact details

If you have any questions about your privacy and our privacy and cookie statement, you can ask them by contacting SPITZ congres & event via:

Lange Voorhout 1
2514 EA The Hague
T: 070 360 9794
E: info@spitz.nu

This privacy and cookie statement was last amended on July 27, 2020